

Rain

By Joel Bidderman © 2005 Joel A. Bidderman/ASCAP

G

A step in time

D/F#

A roll in the dirt

Em7

Makes me wonder why

C2sus D

There are so many miles behind

G

A little rain falls

D/F#

And I'm afraid to look behind me

Em7 C2sus D

Into the past that's made me who I am

A hope in flight

A prayer and a thirst

Calls the sun tonight

And bids the stars a nod...and flirts

With the could-have-beens

That decided better if never

And the unreachable is that way for my own good

Chorus:

G Am7

I'll sing a little tune

Bm7 Bbm7

To the beat of the rain

Am7

On my window pane

G

I'll croon a melody

Am7

As incense to You

Bm7 Bbm7 Am7 (Bass note: B, A, E, F#, G)

Through the whispers alive in the moonlight

A friend in need

I've found myself again

It shows me one more time

That my prayers have been answered

[And] Though it's a cruel, cruel world

The night has a dawn

In the new canvas of the sunrise's song
